The Presidential Leadership Fellows program, a signature student leadership development program offered by the Leadership, Engagement, Activities and Peer mentoring office, is seeking outstanding student participants to form its fifth cohort which will begin in Spring 2021.

Eligible students will be sophomores and juniors in Spring 2021 with at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA. Eligible students will also display outstanding leadership potential through their involvement and contributions to Northern Arizona University, across a diverse array of leadership experiences and academic disciplines. Thirty to forty participants will be selected as Fellows via nominations from faculty and staff members.

Please send completed nomination forms to Michelle.Gardner@nau.edu by Friday, November 20, 2020.
